STATEMENT OF WORK

This Statement of Work, dated as of January 22, 2025 (the "Effective Date"), including any exhibits, attachments, addenda or appendices and/or other terms attached hereto (collectively, the "Statement of Work"), is entered into by and between [redacted] and KPMG LLP ("KPMG") pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Master Services Agreement ("Agreement"), dated as of February 17, 2005, by and between [redacted] and KPMG. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement.

The parties agree to incorporate this Statement of Work as an attachment to the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Agreement shall apply to this Statement of Work unless otherwise expressly stated herein. This Statement of Work, upon full execution hereof, shall be incorporated into the Agreement, including any other Schedules, Attachments, Exhibits, Statement of Work(s) or Addendums. All terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meaning as ascribed to such terms in the Agreement.

1. Scope of Services

1.1. IRC § 41 Research Credit Services

KPMG shall provide [redacted] with tax consulting services to identify, quantify and document activities and expenditures within [redacted] Holdco Corporation & Subs, including [redacted] LLC, [redacted] Inc. and [redacted] (Georgia) National Association ("[redacted]"), which may qualify for the R&D tax credits available to be claimed on [redacted] Holdco Corporation and Subs' Federal, New Jersey and California tax returns. Our review will encompass the fiscal year ended October 31, 2024, October 31, 2025, October 31, 2026 (credit years).

This SOW is also intended to apply to preliminary engagement planning activities related to the scope of services specified above for each of the study years.

KPMG shall:

- Analyze the Project Accounting / Time Tracking reports provided by [redacted] to preliminarily determine a list of potentially qualifying projects / potentially qualifying research expenditures ("PQREs");
- Conduct high level interviews to refine the list of potentially qualifying projects within Information Technology ("IT") / Application Development ("AD");
- Distribute customized questionnaires and conduct meetings (in person and/or by telephone) to discuss the R&D credit rules with the [redacted] GA and [redacted] identified personnel and ascertain the level of qualified research activities conducted within the project/cost center;
- Document qualified research activities and related expenditures, and collect and assemble contemporaneous documentation to support information gathered from project personnel;
- If necessary, make adjustments to the base amount for acquisitions, dispositions and the consistency rule; and
- Calculate the Federal, New Jersey and California credits for each of the credit years.

1.1.1. Deliverables

KPMG shall provide the following Deliverables electronically as well as three (3) CDs, which will include:

- Overview of the development activities at [redacted]
- Scope of services and summary of results;

- Methodology/procedures performed;
- Overview of the current R&D credit law;
- QRE summaries and supporting work papers;
- Base period calculation and supporting work papers
- Project-based Write-Ups summarizing Qualified Research Activities ("QRAs");
- Contemporaneous project documentation; and
- Calculation of QRE and R&D credits for the consolidated tax return and broken out by each legal entity.

Three (3) bounded hard-copies, which will include:

- Overview of the development activities at [redacted]
- Scope of services and summary of results;
- Methodology/procedures performed;
- Overview of the current R&D credit law;
- Base period calculation
- Calculation of QRE and R&D Credits for the consolidated tax return and broken out by each legal entity
- Project-based Write-Ups

1.2. IRC § 174 Expense Identification and Capitalization Services

KPMG shall assist [redacted] with identifying expenditures qualifying as R&D expenditures under Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") § 174 encompassing the tax years ended October 31, 2024, October 31, 2025, October 31, 2026 (the "Review Period").

Specifically, KPMG shall:

- Apply 174 criteria to those employees that possess IRC Section 41 eligible wages and incorporate fully loaded wages;
- Compute expanded cost basis of 3rd party contractor spend under Section 174;
- Identify software development projects that are excluded from the IRC Section 41 scope but are qualified for Section 174;
- Identify and allocate costs related to offshore activities associated with qualifying projects and incorporate costs qualifying under Section 174;
- Identify and allocate non-IT related costs associated with qualifying projects and incorporate costs qualifying under Section 174;
- Identify and allocate overhead costs associated with qualifying projects and incorporate costs qualifying under Section 174;

- Prepare capitalization schedule detailing software development costs subject to amortization for either 5 years for domestic incurred costs and 15 years for foreign incurred costs.
- Review intercompany and 3rd party agreements to identify the party or parties whom would be subject to Section 174 treatment of costs based on ownership of the intellectual property and/or risk of loss in the event that the research is unsuccessful.

1.2.1. Deliverables

KPMG shall provide the following Deliverables (in electronic format):

- IRC §174 capitalization for the tax years ended October 31, 2024, October 31, 2025 and October 31, 2026; respectively, including notes around the expense gathering process;
- 5 and 15 year Amortization schedules; and
- Memorandum documenting the KPMG's IRC §174 calculation procedures including technical legislation supporting the results.

1.3. General Tax Consulting Services

KPMG shall provide routine general tax consulting on matters that may arise for which [redacted] seeks advice, written and oral, and that are not the subject of a separate Statement of Work.

When, in the course of providing general tax consulting services, it is determined that the service would exceed the scope of general tax consulting, preliminary engagement planning activities undertaken prior to the issuance of a separate engagement contract for the discrete tax consulting project are intended to be covered by the Statement of Work.

If an IRS examination occurs, and if you and we agree to have KPMG assist or represent your organization, any such additional services and the fees would be set forth in a separate engagement letter. If matters exceed the scope of this engagement letter, we will either issue (a) a clarifying addendum to confirm the scope and related terms of any additional services to be provided or (b) a separate engagement letter (for more complex projects). To be of greatest assistance to you, we should be advised in advance of proposed transactions to which such services will relate.

1.4. Corporate Alternative Minimum Tax Scope Clarification

The Services will not include addressing the impact of the Corporate Alternative Minimum Tax.

1.5. Term of the Statement of Work

The term hereof shall begin on the Effective Date and, unless terminated as contemplated herein, shall continue for 45 months from the Effective Date. Notice of termination will be provided with 30 days notice for convenience.

2. Fees

2.1. IRC § 41 Research Credit Services

The fee for these services is based on the experience and specialized skill levels of our personnel, and on the scope and nature of the services provided. The fixed fee for these services will be:

- $239,000 for the TY TYE October 31, 2024 engagement
- $239,000 for the TYE October 31, 2025 engagement
- $239,000 for the TYE October 31, 2026 engagement

2.2. IRC § 174 Expense Identification and Capitalization Services

The fee for services is based on the experience and specialized skill levels of our personnel, and on the scope and nature of the services provided. The fixed fee for these services will be:

- $60,000 for the TYE October 31, 2024 engagement
- $60,000 for the TYE October 31, 2025 engagement*
- $60,000 for the TYE October 31, 2026 engagement*

* Should future tax reform result in changes to Section 174 legislation, any proposed changes to the fees associated with the scope of services outlined in this SOW would be discussed with [redacted] tax and procurement and revised accordingly.

The fixed fees outlined above were determined based on the estimated hours and discounted rates summarized in the table below.

2.3. General Tax Consulting Services

The fee for providing services outside the scope of this SOW will be based on the actual time incurred to complete the work at 60 percent of our standard hourly rates for the individuals involved in providing the services.

2.4. Other Fees & Expenses

These fees and expenses are in addition to the fees for the Services.

Solely with respect to this engagement, KPMG agrees to waive the technology fee.

In addition to the fee option selected above, [redacted] shall reimburse KPMG for any previously approved travel and administrative expenses directly incurred by KPMG in the performance of the Services. Such expenses will be invoiced to [redacted] at cost and will not exceed 10% of agreed upon fees.

3. Payment Schedule

3.1. Credit Services & Section 174

Fees will be progress billed as follows:

Progress bill to be provided	TY2024	TY2025	TY2026

Any work performed in connection with this engagement before the execution date of this SOW is also governed by the terms of this letter and the Agreement. These fees are not dependent on tax or other savings achieved or otherwise based in any way on results obtained.

4. Client Access to Tools

4.1. Enabling Tools

KPMG may license certain Enabling Tools for use by Client to facilitate the Services. All other use is prohibited. RBC may not redistribute, reproduce (except as necessary to run), modify, commercialize, allow third parties to access (unless authorized by KPMG in writing), or reverse engineer or decompile (except where such rights cannot be limited by applicable law) Enabling Tools. KPMG shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend [redacted] from and against third-party claims that authorized use of Enabling Tools infringes the intellectual property rights of a third party, subject to any limits or requirements imposed by KPMG's licensors; and [redacted] shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend KPMG and KPMG's licensors from and against third-party claims arising from [redacted] or [redacted] users' unauthorized use of Enabling Tools, or information introduced to the Enabling Tools by RBC and [redacted] users. Enabling Tools are not intended to be used as a system of record, repository, or hosting service, and RBC access to the Deliverables and other documents will be removed from the Enabling Tools within a reasonable period of time (no less frequently than annually for audit clients and their affiliates) following the conclusion of the engagement to which they relate. [redacted] shall download such Deliverables and documents for [redacted] records. Enabling Tools are provided on an "as is" "as available" basis.

4.2. Use of KPMG Research Credit Navigator

KPMG will provide [redacted] with access to KPMG Research Credit Navigator, as an Enabling Tool.

4.3. Microsoft SharePoint Online

KPMG will provide [redacted] with access to Microsoft SharePoint Online as an Enabling Tool.

4.4. KPMG Digital Gateway

KPMG will provide [redacted] with access to KPMG Digital Gateway and its capabilities, visualizations, and/or applications (as applicable) detailed below, as an Enabling Tool:

- Collaboration, Workflows, Data & Analytics, Smart Questionnaire, Contacts

5. Other Matters

5.1. Applicable Standards

When providing tax services, KPMG applies standards that may be higher than those required by law, regulation, or other professional requirements. KPMG will promptly inform [redacted] if, during this engagement, KPMG concludes that a tax return position cannot meet these higher standards.
